CABOT.

The water question is a very serious matter with many Cabot people. Some of the farmers are now obliged to draw water a mile and a half for stock and use in their houses. The slight rain of last Thursday night was not sufficient to reach many of the springs and wells. Rev. D. L. Hillard will move to the house left by the late Mrs. E. C. Haines to the Congregational church for a parsonage as soon as some necessary changes and repairs are made and the house now occupied as a parsonage is Owing to the low water Frank Phelps

Fertilizing Salt.

The Vermont Experiment Station at Burlington weighed ten clusters of grass from two plots of land lying side by side. From the unsalted plot the ten plants weighed 14 grams, while from the plot which had received 3,000 pounds of salt per acre, they weighed 26 grams or nearly twice as much.

Speaking of its effectiveness in killing Hawk Weed, or Paint Brush, the experiment station bulletin says: "Most of the weed was killed by the application of 2,000 pounds per acre. Every plant of it was killed by the application of 3,000 pounds per acre and the weight of the grass was nearly doubled."

FERTILIZING SALT can be obtained of C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., at $4.00 per ton in carload lots; and $4.50 in less than car load lots, put up in cheap 100-lb sacks-no charge for sacks. At this price the Salt is delivered on board the cars at Hyde Park. Low, special freight rates have been arranged to all points on the St. J. & L. After dinner Mrs. Borden, who is 84 years old, recited the following verses which she composed for the occasion:

Oh beautiful age of eighty, Thy winter will soon be gone; The summer time of that beautiful land Will soon begin to dawn.

Hast thy way been dark and dreary In the valley and on the heights? Remember his promise to the faithful, "At eye it shall be light."

Thy friends have left thee one by one, Who cheered thy lonely way, But still His smile illumines the way That leads to perfect day.

The shadows are getting longer, A mist gathers o'er the eyes, And visions fair are eyer near Of that home beyond the skies. Then patiently abide the time, If thy way be dark or bright, And clasp this promise to thy heart— "At eve it shall be bright."

Salada Ceylon-India Tea. China has ceased to be the great teaproducing country that she once was. Ceylon and India now produce by far the largest part of the tea grown in the world, and this is a good thing for the tea drinker, for not only are the teas of Ceylon and India more delicious, but they are also much more healthful, and there is an utter absence of the artificial coloring matter and adulterations that invariably come in with the teas of China and Japan. The trade done by the "SALADA" Ceylon and India Tea Co. in the United States in their sealed lead packets is increasing marvelously. They can be gotten in ten-cent and half-pound sealed lead packets.
